

ROTARIAN SPECIAL ON WAY TO CAPITAL

Large Delegation From Tulsa Club Leaves at 6:30 This Morning to Attend Convention.

HAS BIG PART IN PROGRAM

Local Men Will Speak on All Important Matters Brought Before the Several Sessions.

Aboard a special train which will leave the Union depot at 6:30 o'clock Thursday morning, 100 members of the Tulsa Rotary club, 40 of them accompanied by their wives, will make the trip to Oklahoma City for a conference of Rotary clubs from Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri, which will continue through Thursday and Friday.

At Sapulpa the Tulsa party will be joined by 36 members of the Sapulpa Rotary club. No other stop will be made by the Rotarian special between Tulsa and the capital city.

All Plans Completed. Plans for the trip were completed at a noon meeting of the local club at Hotel Tulsa Wednesday. At this meeting there was a spirited discussion of the proposal to divide this Rotarian district, which is now composed of Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri. A telegram was received from the Muskogee club, indicating there would be opposition to this movement. Several members of the Tulsa club, in spite of the benefits of association with other states and the pleasant relationship between the clubs composing this district as now organized. The dividing of the district was suggested by the rapid growth of Rotary in this state.

Frank Greer delivered an eloquent address at the Wednesday luncheon to the life and work of Abraham Lincoln in honor of whose birthday the meeting was dedicated.

With Return Saturday. President Alf G. Heggen said that the Tulsa club would leave Oklahoma City Friday night about midnight and would arrive in Tulsa early Saturday morning.

It has been so arranged that Tulsa will be represented by a speaker on every one of the various matters to be brought up at the conference, which will place Tulsa in the forefront of conference activities.

The management of the model luncheon of the convention has been turned over to Tulsa. At this occasion J. Burr Gibbons will preside as Rotarian. Introduction of guests will take place after the formalities at local lunches which will be followed by a number of the Tulsa Rotary glee club.

A division of the dual membership project will be participated in by Bill and Fred Buchner as respective exponents of the two different angles of the question. The program for the luncheon will be closed on behalf of Tulsa by Paul Galloway. Local Rotarians have also been notified that their representation will have charge of stunt No. 2, which although the Tulsans do not know exactly what is expected of two, which program to put it over in style.

METHODISTS OF EASTERN DISTRICT TO MEET HERE

Next Wednesday afternoon will bring to Tulsa representatives from all the different Methodist churches in the eastern part of the state, for the purpose of formulating plans for the centenary movement, with the idea of having a five-year extension program in American and foreign fields.

There will be several speakers of national fame and from the important towns of Oklahoma, including Dr. W. C. Brown of Chicago, secretary of the World Sunday School Association; Dr. H. E. Wolf of Wichita, executive secretary of the Wichita area of the centennial movement; Dr. R. E. Difendorfer of Philadelphia and New York, and W. J. Burns of Philadelphia.

At 6 o'clock there will be a dinner for the business men in the Y. M. C. A. cafeteria, at which dinner Rev. J. E. Thackery will describe the church conditions of eastern Oklahoma and the needs of church extension by means of photographic slides.

In the evening at 7 o'clock there will be a gathering of all the representatives from the different churches of the state. Several addresses will be delivered after which the meeting will be thrown open for discussion on the plans which are to be adopted.

WILL FINALLY ORGANIZE FINANCIAL CORPORATION

Pending the return of Earl W. Smith from Cuba and R. M. McFarlin from New York, a meeting of the board of directors of the Tulsa Financial Corporation, Tulsa's million dollar concern, will be held probably Monday for the purpose of consummating a permanent organization. This corporation is being organized through the management of the chamber of commerce and its aim is the promotion of financial and industrial development of Tulsa.

The corporation is capitalized at $10,000,000 and is expected to assume an influential position in the industrial affairs of Tulsa and territory. Assistance to industrial and manufacturing plants that purpose to locate here will be their primary function of this organization. The plan is to extend financial aid on a 60-80 basis. The meeting of the board of directors will be held in the municipal auditorium.
